

BUDGET IMPLICATIONS OF THE HEALTH PERFORMANCE IN SOUTH SULAWESI PROVINCE

Muhammad Yunus

Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, University of Hasanuddin

INDONESIA

Corresponding Author Email: myunus59@yahoo.com

ABSTRACT

This study aims to assess the extent of budget implications that are used in health sector of South Sulawesi by seeing the physical changes of health facilities, life expectancy, public health indices and objectives, the program and realization of the health budget. The method used in this research is descriptive qualitative approach to searches of secondary data related to the amount of available budget and program data and activities undertaken related to health programs. The results showed that the performance of health sector in South Sulawesi in the last 5 years show a positive improvement.

Keywords: Budget, Health performance.