

THE THEME OF WWII IN JOSEPH HELLER'S NOVEL "CATCH-22"

Maftuna Do'sqobilovna Suyunova, Ubaydullayeva Maftunakhon Omonboyev kizi

Lecturers of Chair of Foreign languages for the direction of Natural Science. National University of Uzbekistan, Tashkent

e-mail: suyunova93@bk.ru

ABSTRACT

This article is devoted to the theme and time –structure of the American writer Joseph Heller's novel "Catch-22". In addition, the author uses black humor in his novel in order to highlights that with the help of humor the author demonstrates the absurdity, anxiety and bureaucracy of the war. As well as the time and structure are also arguable thing in this novel.

Keywords: WWII, Joseph Heller, Catch-22, anachronies, time, structure, black humor or dark humor.