

ANALYSIS OF TESTS TO MEASURE THE TARGET ACCURACY OF TECHNICAL TECHNIQUES IN FOOTBALL PLAYERS

Artikov Askar Akbarovich

Department of football theory and methodology of the Uzbek state University of physical culture and sports acting associate Professor, PhD

ABSTRACT

The paper offers tests used to assess the target accuracy of technical techniques of 16-17-year-old football players. The analysis of correlation stability of tests is made, 2 groups of football players are revealed. The results of the work can be used in the work of coaches and football specialists.

Keywords: Target accuracy of technical techniques, young players, tests to control technical training.